

Strete Buildings, Ancient Monuments and Heritage Features

The following add to the character of the village and are part of its history:

- * The old water pump on the edge of the Kings Arms car park
- * The telephone box next to the shop/post office
- * The Laughing Monk restaurant (the old school)
- * Strete Barton House 4 Star Guest House (Old Farm House)
- * Cox's Farm and the large barn (listed)
- * Wall on the right of cut-through footpath from Totnes Road to The Plat
- * Terrace of houses joining the Long House (Old Farm building)
- * Barn conversions behind this terrace
- * Tallis Rock (Old Vicarage & Hotel)
- * Asherne (listed)
- * Asherne Lodge
- * Asherne Cottages and gardens
- * Strete Lodge
- * Cobbler's Well
- * Cobbles Cottage
- * The Retreat
- * Frogwell Cottage
- * Roxburgh
- * Terrace of 3 cottages (Sea View, The Nook, Fairholme) next to Roxburgh (listed)
- * Overstrand
- * Caudells
- * Wall adjacent to steps to Pipers Cottage
- * Rushford
- * Walpole House
- * Hartley Cottage
- * Wall, pillars and gate outside Seacliff
- * Mounting steps outside the Long House
- * Boot scraper in Laughing Monk wall
- * Three milestones (listed)
- * Trees: 2 trees in grounds of Hynetown House and 1 in Cox's field near The Plat (listed)
- * Oak tree on green opposite Skerries presented by Royal British Legion in 2004/5 to celebrate 200th anniversary of the battle of Trafalgar
- * Devon banks
- * Barns at Landcombe Farm